

Unitil/FG&E Reduces Energy Costs at Three Housing Complexes in Fitchburg

October 17, 2001

Hampton, NH – October 17, 2001: Unitil Corporation (AMEX: UTL) (www.unitil.com) reports that its wholly owned subsidiary, Fitchburg Gas and Electric Light Company (FG&E) has recently completed improvements at a number of multifamily complexes which are targeted to save energy and reduce residents' monthly energy bills. Unitil/FG&E provided energy saving improvements to the Whispering Pines, Wallace Towers and Fitchburg Green properties under Unitil/FG&E's energy efficiency programs.

Improvements provided by Unitil/FG&E to the Whispering Pines complex included insulation and weatherization services, which are estimated to save residents over $7,000 in annual energy costs. Unitil/FG&E provided Energy Star lighting and weatherization services to the residents at the Wallace Tower apartments and the Fitchburg Green apartments. Savings at each complex are projected to exceed $14,000 annually.

Unitil/FG&E offers efficiency programs designed to help customers use energy more efficiently – while reducing monthly energy bills and enhancing the comfort and convenience of their homes. These programs also help the customer make informed product choices by providing information on the energy consumption of household appliances as well as information about new, high efficiency products and technologies. To find out more information about the Unitil/FG&E energy savings programs, please call
